1. Introduction

The European Commission is committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. The Commission collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data in the context of the European Summit on Anti-Racism. It explains the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

The information in relation to processing operation of the European Summit on Anti-Racism, undertaken by DG Justice and Consumers, Unit of the European Commission, is presented below.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Purpose of the processing operation: DG Justice and Consumers, Unit D1 – Non-Discrimination and Roma Coordination, collects and further processes your personal data to provide you with information about the European Summit on Anti-Racism (before, during and after) and to process your application for participation in that meeting.

Live web-streaming, audio-visual recording and photographs of the speakers at the European Summit on Anti-Racism will be taken and published in the context of the European Summit on Anti-Racism on the web and social media channels of the European Commission.

The audience or non-speaker participants are not photographed individually or in groups.

A video and/or audio conference if triggered by a Commission staff member to integrate external participants, this capacity implies the participant identification by the use of a set of parameters (mainly email address). These parameters are mandatory for the regular operation of the service and are deleted once the session is terminated.

During the video/audio conference, all participants are able to share its content and the meeting organiser owns the capacity to locally record the conference. This action should be announced to the participants and are under the responsibility of the video/audio conference organiser along with intended use of the recording.

Your personal data will not be used for any automated decision-making including profiling.

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data?

The processing operations on personal data, linked to the organisation, management, follow-up and promotion of the European Summit on Anti-Racism (including web-streaming, photos, audio-visual recording) are necessary for the management and functioning of the Commission, as mandated by the Treaties. Those provisions are in particular Article 11 of the Treaty on European Union and Article 15 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. Consequently, those processing operations are lawful under Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 (processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body).

Your consent is required for:

- the processing of your personal data for inviting you to future events the data controller may organise;
- Personal data collected during on-line web video conferencing events or meetings or the use of special tools during the meeting such as Sli.do will be deleted immediately after the event unless the meeting organiser is recording or collecting this information for further use.

If you opt-in, you are giving us your explicit consent under Article 5(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 to process your personal data for those specific purposes. You can give your consent via a clear affirmative act by ticking the box(es) on the online registration form.

Your consent for these services can be withdrawn at any time:

- for withdrawing consent that you have provided in order to benefit from other services, please contact the controller of the meeting/event at Contact@AntiRacism-EUsummit2021.eu.

4. Which personal data do we collect and further process?

The following personal data will be processed:

- contact details (function/title, first name, last name, name of organisation, country, e-mail address).

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

The Data Controller only keeps your personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection or further processing.

For each of the categories of personal data that is processed, please find below the retention details and the reference to the relevant record of processing:

- All personal data related to the organisation and management of the European Summit on Anti-Racism (this includes the information given during the registration, before, during or after the event) will be deleted one year after the last action in relation to the European Summit on Anti-Racism.
- Recordings from the web-streamed European Summit on Anti-Racism will be kept for 2 years before being deleted. More information is available in the Record of Processing DPR-EC-00306 (Web-streaming of Commission events).
- In case of audio-visual recording of the European Summit on Anti-Racism, the recordings will be kept for 3 months after the European Summit on Anti-Racism before being deleted. More information is available in the Record of Processing DPR-EC-01937 (Audio-visual recording of meetings).
- Personal data shared with the controller for future mailing purposes (e.g., for receiving newsletters or invitations to similar events) are processed in line with the Record of Processing DPR-EC-01063.1

- Selected service providers for organisational purposes (such as caterers, travel agents or event management organisations) are contractually bound to process personal data on behalf of and in line with the instructions of the data controller, keep confidential any data they process and protect it from unauthorised access, use and retention.

6. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

All personal data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, databases, uploaded batches of data, etc.) are stored either on the servers of the European Commission or of its contractor Tipik. All processing operations are carried out pursuant to Commission Decision \(EU, Euratom\) 2017/46 of 10 January 2017 on the security of communication and information systems in the European Commission.

The Commission's contractors are bound by a specific contractual clause for any processing operations of your personal data on behalf of the Commission, and by the confidentiality obligations deriving from the General Data Protection Regulation ('GDPR' - Regulation \(EU\) 2016/679).

In order to protect your personal data, the Commission has put in place a number of technical and organisational measures. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation.

7. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data is provided to the Commission staff responsible for carrying out this processing operation and to other authorised Commission staff according to the "need to know" principle. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

Where necessary, we may also share your information with service providers for the purposes of organising the European Summit on Anti-Racism:

For the purpose of broadcasting the video streamed and streaming online the plenary sessions, Webex, third party tool under Tipik Communication Agency (contractor)'s responsibility, collects from moderators and speakers the following personal data: title, position, the first name, last name, email address, IP address, website data, geolocation, and browser-generated information, cookies, language settings, operating system used, unique device identifiers or other technologies used to analyse users' activity. Moreover, it hosts the collected personal data on servers in Europe. For information on how Webex uses cookies and how processes personal data, please see privacy policy here.

For the purpose of Q&A, quizzes, and polls, Sli.do, third party tool under DG JUST (Data controller) responsibility, collects from moderators, speakers, participants the following personal data: first name, last name, IP address, language, website data, geolocation, and browser-generated information (including device information, operating system, device type, system, cookies or other technologies used to analyse users' activity). It hosts the collected personal data on servers in Europe or the United States. For information on how Sli.do uses cookies and how Sli.do processes personal data, please consult this link <https://www.sli.do/terms#privacy-policy>.

For the purpose of sending mailings to speakers and participants, Tipik collects the following personal data: title, first name, last name, organisation, work country, job position, (professional/personal) e-mail address. Moreover, it hosts the collected personal data on servers in the European Economic Area.

8. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a 'data subject' under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access, your personal data and to rectify them in case your personal data are inaccurate or incomplete. Where applicable, you have the right to erase your personal data, to restrict the processing of your personal data, to object to the processing, and the right to data portability.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which is lawfully carried out pursuant to Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 on grounds relating to your particular situation.

You have consented to provide your personal data to the data controller for the present processing operation. You can withdraw your consent at any time by notifying the data controller by writing an email to Contact@AntiRacism-EUsummit2021.eu. The withdrawal of your consent will not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before you have withdrawn the consent.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the data controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 9 below.

Where you wish to exercise your rights in the context of one or several specific processing operations, please provide their description (i.e. their Record reference(s) as specified under Heading 10 below) in your request.

9. Contact information

- The Data Controller

If you would like to exercise your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, or if you have comments, questions or concerns, or if you would like to submit a complaint regarding the collection and use of your personal data, please feel free to contact the Data Controller at JUST-NO-RACISM@ec.europa.eu

- The Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the Commission

You may contact the Data Protection Officer (DATA-PROTECTION-OFFICER@ec.europa.eu) with regard to issues related to the processing of your personal data under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

- The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS)

You have the right to have recourse (i.e. you can lodge a complaint) to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu) if you consider that your rights under Regulation

(EU) 2018/1725 have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the data controller.

10. Where to find more detailed information?

The Commission Data Protection Officer (DPO) publishes the register of all processing operations on personal data by the European Commission, which have been documented and notified to him. You may access the register via the following link: <http://ec.europa.eu/dpo-register>.
